

Please do not do anything to change Wisconsin's No-Call list. I signed up for the list when it first became available and would not want to change that for anything. My home is a personal and private place, and the No-Call list keeps me from receiving phone calls that I do not and would not want.